Gain confidence, make new friends & discover the thrill of Broadway with Fiona Laube

Fiona Laube a New York-based dancer who has spent several years performing and teaching worldwide. She was a featured dancer in the National Tour of Sweet Charity, and sailed the Atlantic and Pacific while performing and teaching aboard Princess Cruises. Regional theater credits include Singin' in the Rain, White Christmas, Hello Dolly, The Producers, Oklahoma!, My Fair Lady, Will Rogers Follies to name a few. Although the Oklahoma City University alum's passion has turned to a focus on teaching and choreographing, she continues to perform seasonally with Donation Dance NYC. Other than teaching various styles at studios in the tri-state area, she also teaches master classes nationwide and adjudicates dance competitions. She is always eager to inspire young dancers to become better technicians and performers.
